2014 EGG-STRAVAGANZA COMING TO THE FLINT CHILDREN'S MUSEUM

FLINT, MI – FRIDAY, APRIL 18, 2014

The 2014 Egg-stravaganza is coming to the Flint Children's Museum, challenging children to hunt for more than 6,000 colorful eggs stuffed with candy, stickers, bracelets, toys, and a grand prize for each hunt!

This will be the Museum's second annual egg hunt to celebrate Spring. "The egg hunts are a great way for children to practice identification, counting, and teamwork skills" said Executive Director Sue Nederlander. "We had such a great response last year that we decided to do it again. It is a lot of fun to watch parents and children from all backgrounds working together as a team. That's what the Flint Children's Museum is all about."

The 2014 Egg-stravaganza will include three separate egg hunts on Friday, April 18, 2014 at 11:00 a.m., 1:00 p.m., and 3:00 p.m. Participants are encouraged to bring their own baskets for collecting eggs, and to arrive early for registration. Registration is open to Museum guests only. The fee to register for the hunt is $2 per person, in addition to the Museum's regular admission price of $6.00.

For more information about this event, contact The Flint Children's Museum at 810-767-KIDS or at www.flintchildrensmuseum.org.
