NEW EXHIBIT OPENING AT THE FLINT CHILDREN'S MUSEUM

FLINT, MI – Time Machine, a new exhibit at the Flint Children's Museum, opens Friday, January 31. The exhibit transports children and families to far-off places and times including Greece 500B.C.E, China 1000C.E, New York City 2014C.E, and "Future Flint" 2114C.E.

The Time Machine exhibit provides children with interactive learning experiences that stimulate curiosity and improve understanding. Educational activities in the exhibit reinforce learning in science, technology, engineering, history, art, and math. Children can participate in the Olympic Games, build the Great Wall of China, measure New York's tallest buildings, and design "Future Flint." Even the youngest children will be able to enjoy the exhibit by reading stories with a Giant Panda, riding the subway, and building robots.
